One of the best places to try Tapas in Malaga and in all of Spain (I would say). It has outdoor seating, the ambiance was good and the food here was so delicious .

We've tried the items below here:

Croquetas de setas - Mushroom croquettes - super. Melted in our mouths

Patatas bravas - chips with spicy sauce - which were amazing (many other Tapas vendors modify this into potato wedges but this place has the best Patatas bravas)

Pimiento de padron - spanish fried peppers

Drinks :

Copa de sangria - colorful and good too

I highly recommend this place to try the Tapas if you're in Spain

Very fast service, large portions, and prices that are low considering the location and portion sizes. A big plus was that the kids enjoyed everything. The staff was very good and attentive.

We ordered the highly recommended "Mixed Tapas" (5 tapas) and the "Fritura Malagueña." The dishes were very large but tasted just average. The quality was simply good, but it would be nice to have more vegetables and sauces.

Despite the restaurant being full, the waiting time was very short.

We might come back to try something else from the menu sometimes what people recommend isn't necessarily the best.

Service was amazing, served by Camen!!! Highly appreciate her! Placed in a fantastic location overlooking the street! Great ambiance and decor. All the food was 10/10!! Cocktails were out of this world!!!

Plus we got complimentary shots of baileys at the end on the house cant complain.

Would highly recommend

LOLITA Taberna Andaluza offers an authentic Andalusian dining experience right at the heart of Málaga's bustling downtown area on C. Granada Street, ideal for those looking to enjoy a meal in good company amidst lively surroundings.

Reviews:

- Thomas Goldby (4/5)

A restaurant right in the bustling square, we wanted a location like that to enjoy our meal outdoors. Good service, got a table promptly, the tables are very close to each other so it is as if youre sharing your meal with strangers.

Food was fine, we found the calamares and bravas were nicer than the Pil-Pil (which wasnt as hot as its a sizzling dish otherwise) and chicken. But nothing major to complain about. Overall a decent place.

- Mike (3/5)

The food was decent, but fell short of the average we experienced throughout our multi-city trip in Spain.

Service was goodfast and efficient.

The decor and atmosphere were outstanding, a perfect 10/10.
